The (old school?) hip-hop duo Salt & Pepa outdrew the Temptations and filled the Green at a concert Saturday night.

Salt & Pepa rapped their way through the second of two concerts staged to keep the momentum of the Arts & Ideas Festival going this month. The previous week, the Temptations Review drew an estimated 9,080 listeners to the Green.

The city has employed a detailed crowd-estimating team for these events. The official attendance estimate for the Salt & Pepa concert is 10,890.

Chris Randall's photo at the top of this story shows what that looked like from above. Click here for more up-close photos of the fans at the concert, courtesy of the I Love New Haven blog.
